

1995 Phoenix Award Winner

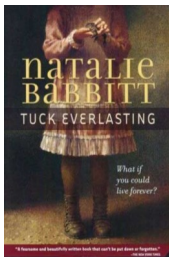

Dragonwings

by Laurence Yep

(HarperCollins, 1975; Harper Trophy, 1975; Scholastic, 1990)

In 1903, young Moon Shadow, 8, leaves his native China to join his father in San Francisco, where he encounters both prejudice and friendship from Americans, becomes involved in intrigue among his expatriots in Chinatown, and learns to understand his idealistic and often impractical father. Both a sensitive boy's growing-up story and a revealing historical novel, it excels in conveying the immigrant experience against a background of innovation in aviation and the San Francisco earthquake.

1995 Phoenix Honor Book

Tuck Everlasting

by Natalie Babbitt

(Farrar, 1975; Bantam, 1975)